

Just because a national do-not-call list has been implemented does not mean that the laws of individual states must be rescinded. Please do not force NJ and other states to remove their tougher do-not-call laws. Thank you.